Glenmont Job Corps Academy is located in Glenmont, N.Y., just a short distance from downtown Albany and the state Capitol. The 100-acre campus provides 340 students with hands-on training, academic programs and a wide variety of recreational activities.

Dorm Life

Glenmont has four dorms ranging in size from 60 to 90 students per dorm. Students have one or two roommates and may earn single rooms based on performance ratings. Each room has sinks, but students share bathrooms.

On the Clock

Glenmont students start the day at 6 a.m., and academic and career skills training ends at 3:30 p.m. Students finish homework and enjoy free time before lights-out at 11 p.m. Sunday through Thursday. On the weekends, students wake up by 9 a.m. and are in the dorms by 12:30 a.m. Lights-out is at 2 a.m.

During the training day, Glenmont students wear academy-issued uniforms. During free time, students wear casual clothing in accordance with the dress code.

Family and Friends

Eligible students may request day or weekend passes. Students' families are encouraged to visit, with prior notice given.

What Is Job Corps?

Job Corps is America's leading career skills training and education program for youth ages 16 through 24. Administered by the U.S. Department of Labor, Job Corps trains 65,000 students each year.

- Residential: Most students live at one of 122 Job Corps campuses across the country.
- Personal: Staff work with students to create a personal career development plan.
- Self-paced: Students learn at their own pace, typically enrolled for eight months to two years.
- No cost to eligible students.

The Benefits

- Education and career training
- Room and board (at most campuses)
- Medical care
- Biweekly living allowances
- Help finding a job and housing after graduation

Career Skills Training

Job Corps offers hands-on training in more than 60 career areas, such as auto mechanics, construction, health care and information technology – all high-growth industries. Learn computer, interview, job search and other employability skills, including how to write a resume. Job Corps teams up with employers to give students on-the-job work experience.

Education

If you haven't finished high school, Job Corps can help you earn your diploma or GED. Job Corps offers opportunities for higher education through partnerships with community and technical colleges.

Life at the Academy

Join in fun activities such as student government, sports teams, clubs and community service projects. Job Corps campuses are committed to safety and have a Zero Tolerance Policy toward drugs and violence.

It's Your Move

Make a commitment to yourself and the program, and Job Corps staff will help you every step of the way. Ninety percent of our graduates join the workforce, enroll in higher education or enlist in the military.

If you're ready for a promising future, call Glenmont Job Corps Academy at (518) 767-9371 or (800) 733-JOBS for more information.
